The screenshot shows the profile page for Mona Essawy on the bashmohands website. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for Home, Instructors, and My Sessions. On the right, a user profile for Mohamed Abduljalil is shown. Below the navigation is a large banner image of a person in a green environment. To the left of the banner is a circular profile picture of Mona Essawy, a woman with dark hair, wearing a white shirt and black pants, standing outdoors with a purple sign in the background. Her name, "Mona Essawy", is displayed next to the picture, followed by the Egyptian flag emoji and the text "Software Engineer at Vodafone". To the right of her name is a pink button labeled "Schedule FREE Call" with a phone icon. Further to the right is a small upward-pointing arrow icon. Below the banner, there are sections for "About" (with a bio about her experience in product design and strategy), "Disciplines & Expertise" (with icons for Career Mentoring and Teaching), and social media links for LinkedIn, GitHub, and a globe. A red arrow points from the "Schedule FREE Call" button towards the "Disciplines & Expertise" section.
